Once again, by popular request, The Kingswood Players are calling for any budding DI Frost, Miss Marple, Sherlock Holmes, Hercule Poirot or DS Ellie Miller!

You are invited to solve the crime as the company present “The Hadleigh Hall Inheritance”. During the evening, there will not only be many clues and ‘red herrings’, but also much plotting and surprise desires as the family of the wealthy Miss Frobisher gather together. Why and what happens, you need to find out! Only then, may you be able to solve the crime!

The performances will be cabaret style, with seating around tables and includes a musical interlude, giving you the opportunity to confer!

Afternoon teas will be on sale at the matinee, whilst the evening will be a BYO format – bring your own drinks, nibbles and supper –the choice is yours!
