*. . . A tale of true love, fortunes, hopes and dreams
Where the outer appearance may not be all that it seems . . .*

When poor widower Marcel Merchant and his love-struck housekeeper, Mimi Pompidou, take shelter from a storm in a spooky, manky, murky chateau, little do they realise what's lurking in the murk . . . or quite what it will cost one of Marcel's daughters. Join our brave heroine, Beauty, and a host of colourful characters in this exciting new version of the well loved tale!
