

SEASIDE POSTERS ODE

If you should want a holiday,
But minus all the fuss,
Then put your passports right away
And come along with us.

From the comfort of your garden
You can holiday at home,
While neighbours keep an eye on things
And relocate your gnome.

Or travel to an airfield,
But you'll think you've gone insane,
For there you'll find no seats or food
And - by the way - no plane!

You could imagine you're in Spain
With sea and sun as well,
Then find your beach invaded
By the "turistas" from hell.

Watch out for Mr Punch as well,
He can be very moody.
When he's not throwing squasages
He's arguing with Judy

But I know what he'd say
To Sue and Emma who got through it,
To both of you, and cast and crew,
Yes - "That's the way to do it!"
